KINDLY SUGGESTED.

The Rev. Father J. T. Roche, LL.D., who is expected will be offered the editorial chair of the archdiocesan paper of Chicago, the New World, has written a series of interesting articles on "The Business Side of the Church." These articles are full of good things for clergy and laity alike, but in very recent letter the reverend writer says: "We have never yet been able to organize a Catholic young men's society similar in general scope to the Y. M. C. A." That there is a real need for an organization of this kind no one will deny. Might the Kentucky Irish American be pardoned for suggesting that the Young Men's Institute is as broad in scope as the Y. M. C. A. with the exception that its members must be practical Catholics. On the other hand, Catholics may join the Y. M. C. A., but are not permitted to hold any office. It might be well for Catholics generally to investigate the Y. M. I. and see the good work that is being done. Father Roche would be more than welcome should he visit Mackin Council in Louisville, and would certainly not regret the visit after he had seen its club house, gymnasium, reading rooms and baths. For Catholic young men the Y. M. I. is doing a great work.

WHAT WILL BE DONE?

"Birds of a feather flock together" is an adage as old as the English language. In spirit it is as old as the principle that water seeks its level; that like seeks like. Small wonder it is, then, that Detective Robert Foster attended the negro celebration of Lincoln's birthday Wednesday night and paid a big round dollar for the privilege of being there. He also congratulated the negroes on their apparent intelligence, and it is said put in a few links for Secretary Taft. This ought to make Foster stand high in the opinion of W. Marshall Bullitt. By the way, this is the same Detective Foster who acts as a smelling committee on Sunday and who was recently deprived of his revolver by a man whose home he had invaded. If a Democratic policeman were to make a speech at a Jefferson or Jackson birthday celebration he would be fired forthwith. What will be done to Foster? Promoted? Perhaps.

SOMETHING IS AMISS.

Not for love of Ireland, but for purely advertising purposes, an American daily journal, of sensational tendencies and thoroughly pro-British policies, has challenged Ireland to produce the photograph or the original or more beautiful girl than its protege. It is called, though the information is by no means authentic, that the Dublin Weekly Times has accepted the challenge, and that hundreds of photographs are pouring upon the editor with every mail. It may be surprising to our Irish-American mothers and grandmothers to know that photograph galleries are so profuse in every village, town and hamlet in Erin. It will be still more surprising for them to learn that Irish girls have lost their maidenly modesty and have gone in for a beauty quest. There are thousands of beautiful girls in Ireland, but they are not now and will never be on dress parade for the purpose of advertising a newspaper.

YONTS' DUAL ROLE.

Not satisfied with the ravages of the Tobacco Trust, all the woe, the burn-burning and the heart-burning it has caused, there are some people who want to establish a Milk Trust in Kentucky. Morton K. Yonts, who is the paid attorney of the City of Louisville, neglects his business here to go to Frankfort and address the Legislature as the hired attorney and in the interest of the new trust. Of course Mr. Yonts and his clients declare the new trust is a necessity and lay the blame on poor old Tuberculosis. If Tuberculosis and his anti-Salvation Army pay for all the free advertising they get these days they would both be bankrupt. Morton K. Yonts and the other money changers in his party got a black eye in November. They had better beware lest they be scourged from the temple of Democracy.

HINTS OF SCANDAL.

In certain high political circles in Ireland the theft of the crown jewels, sometimes called St. Patrick's Hall, from Dublin Castle continues to be a theme of discourse. The Irish, as a people, do not care a continental curse what became of the jewels. Why? Because they are part of the insignia of British Twin babies, their sister, mother and grandmother, who are awaiting the return of Papa Charles L. Cate, employed by the Government at Panama.

SOCIETY.

Mrs. John Biney spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Noe, last week.

Alton Leuke has returned from a visit to his sister, Mrs. Edwin C. Dawson, in New Haven.

Miss Hildegarde Daly, who has been suffering from a severe case of grip, is slowly improving.

Miss Mollie Collins, who has been recuperating at Martinsville, Ind., will remain there another week.

Mrs. Mike A. Wall, of Jeffersonville, who has been seriously ill, has improved within the last few days.

James Tyrrell, formerly instructor of swimming at the Coliseum pool, has sailed for his home in Belfast, Ireland.

John W. Gray and wife, of West Chestnut street, have returned from their most enjoyable visit to friends in Pendleton county.

Miss Josie O'Neil suffered a dislocation of her right arm Thursday and will be unable to leave the house for several days.

Mrs. Robert Higgins, who recently submitted to a serious surgical operation at St. Joseph's Infirmary, is rapidly improving.

Mrs. W. B. Long has returned to her home in this city after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. Timothy Sullivan, at Elkhorn.

Miss Athalie Mattingly, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Katherine Mattingly, has returned to her home in Lebanon.

The New York Legislature has before it a bill making it a felony for any person to give a fictitious name when placed under arrest. For years many men and women when arrested in the Empire State sought safety by giving an assumed and usually an Irish name. The same bill might be introduced in Kentucky. A rider should be added to include felony for pugilists who assumed Irish names.

JUST TO BOTH.

Employers' Liability Does Not Mean Great Burden.

That employers should protect their employees in case of accident is one of the most forcible doctrines of President Roosevelt in his latest message to Congress. Hear him:

The same broad principle which should apply to the Government should ultimately be made applicable to all private employers. Where the nation has power it should enact the laws. It is to be observed that an employers' liability law does not really mean mauling employers in damages. It merely throws upon the employer the burden of accident insurance against injuries which are sure to occur. It requires him either to bear or to distribute through insurance the loss which can readily be borne when distributed, but which, if undistributed, bears the frightful hardship upon the unfortunate victim of accident.

In theory, if wages were always freely and fairly adjusted, they would always include an allowance as against the risk of injury, just as certainly as the rate of interest for money includes an allowance for insurance against the risk of loss. In theory, if employees were all experienced business men, they would employ that part of their wages which is received because of the risk of injury to secure accident insurance. But as a matter of fact, it is not practical to expect that this will be done by the great body of employees. An employers' liability law makes it certain that it will be done, in effect, by the employer, and it will ultimately impose no real additional burden upon him.

ST. MICHAEL'S BAZAR.

Members of St. Michael's congregation are arranging to give a bazaar for the benefit of the church in the school hall, on Brook street, on March 2 and 3. Rev. Father O'Conor has materially reduced the debt of the church during his pastorate and his people are very anxious to help him in his good work.

IRISH COPE.

Pope Pius X is to be presented with a handsome cope of exclusively Irish manufacture. The cloak of the cope is in the form of a Celtic cross adorned with Irish amethysts. The poplin and silk are the products of Dublin looms. On either side of the foot border of the cope are embroidered the Pontifical arms with the Pope's own arms upon the shield.

Mary Hines, Corinne Davis, Florence Gilman, Lillian Andriots, Mildred Robinson, Ella Dillon, Ellinor Robison, Anna Lee Gassman, Rose Ella Keenan, Ruth Jones, Evelyn Secor, Mayme O'Brien, Laura Langan, Mary Ellen Mahoney, Mary and Elizabeth Campbell, Marie Dougherty, Edna Butler, Helen May, Loretta and Anna Rose Butler, Mary Louise Wentzell, Alice Wilecoxson, Edna Deep, Agnes Davis, Theresa Rose Butler and Masters, John Campbell, Allen Millegan, D. ## SILVER JUBILEE.

Trinity Council Preparing For Great Event Next Month.

Trinity Council, Y. M. C. I., had one of its old time rallies, full of business and enthusiasm, Monday night. President James B. Kelly presided and kept things on the line. Every officer was present and the enthusiasm displayed indicated that the council's prospects were more encouraging than ever before. The council decided to celebrate its silver jubilee at the Young Men's Institute at the old house on East Gray street, on the night of March 2. Edward Kelly, Emma Shattuck, Eugene J. Cooney, Albert F. Murria and Edward Wulf were appointed a committee to arrange the details of the celebration. It is intended to make the entertainment surpass anything ever attempted by Trinity.

Adam Schneider announced that quite a number of tickets for the entree and dance to be given Thursday evening, February 20, had been disposed of. He said the committee felt that the forthcoming event would be a social and financial success. Henry Beckman was elected Collector for the council. The remainder of the evening was spent in the transaction of routine business.

DEATH WAS SUDDEN.

Mrs. Maria Donnelly Clancy, one of the most popular Irish-American ladies in Louisville, dropped dead at her home, 1531 West Walnut street, Sunday morning. She had just returned from mass. As she crossed the threshold she screamed and fell senseless. Her husband, an electrical engineer, was dead. The Coroner announced that death was due to total paralysis brought on by uremic poisoning. The deceased was born in Ireland fifty-nine years ago, but had spent the greater part of her life in Louisville. She was the widow of Patrick Clancy, three children, Miss Florence, Edward and John Clancy, survive her. The funeral took place from the Cathedral of the Assumption Tuesday morning. Many friends called at the home of the bereaved family Sunday night and Monday to pay their last respects to the remains.

GOV. WILLSON'S TRAVELS.

Gov. A. E. Willson has been a fast-traveler this week. Monday he was in Washington, D. C., and during the forenoon spent a pleasant hour with President Roosevelt. Later he called upon Justice Barlan, of the United States Supreme Court, his former law partner in Louisville. In the afternoon Gov. Willson and Justice Barlan paid a visit to the Capitol, where both were admitted to the floors of both the Senate and House of Representatives. Gov. Willson was introduced to many of the leading Republican Congressmen of both Houses. That evening he was the guest of honor at a dinner tendered to the Judiciary. Tuesday night Justice McKenna gave a dinner in his honor. Wednesday he went to New York City, where he was the guest of honor and one of the principal speakers at the Lincoln memorial dinner. He is expected to be in Louisville tomorrow.

HIT AT KENTUCKY.

Capital Is Not Safe Where Reprisals Are Being Taken.

It would appear that President Roosevelt had Kentucky in mind when he referred to reprisals in certain States. He says:

The time has come for the strict supervision of these great corporations and the limitation of their stock and bond issues under some proper public official. It will make for conservatism and strengthen the companies doing a legitimate business, and eliminate, let us hope, those which are mere speculators, simply to cut the unsavory speculating or cornering. Investors. Corporations have come in our business world to remain for all time. Corporate methods are the most satisfactory for business purposes in many cases. Every business or enterprise honestly incorporated should be protected, and the public made to feel confidence in its corporate organization. Capital invested in corporations must be as free from wrongdoing as that invested by individuals, and the State should do everything to foster and protect invested corporate capital and encourage the public in giving it support and confidence. Nothing will do so much to achieve this desirable result as proper supervision and reasonable control over stock and bond issues, so that overcapitalization will be prevented and the people may know when they buy a share of stock or a bond * * * that the name of the State upon it stands as a guarantee that there is value behind it and reasonable safety in its purchase. The act must make it clear that the intent of the supervision by the Commissioner is not for the purpose of striking at corporate organization, but rather to keep and protect existing conditions and insure greater safeguards for the future. Capital does not go into a State where reprisals are taken on vested interests are injured; it comes only where wise, conservative, safe treatment is assured, and it should be our policy to encourage and secure corporate rights and the best interests of stock and bond holders committed to our legal care.

SURPRISE JUBILEE.

As Col. Joseph P. McGinn describes it, his friends descended like a wolf on the fold upon his domiciliary office, 515 West Chestnut street, Friday night of last week, and indulged in a celebration of the silver wedding of Col. and Mrs. McGinn. Among those present were Misses Anna, Alice and Florence Shrader, Agnes McGinn, Anna Presser, Gertrude and Mary McGinn, Master George Schrader; Messes. James Nabon, G. Berney, McGinn, Andrew Connell and Messes. and Messdames John J. McGinn, George B. Schrader, Henry Presser, Carl Hollenbach and Mrs. A. D. Blel. The presents were numerous and handsome. Col. McGinn is prominent in Hibernian and Catholic Knights of America circles.

EUCHAR AND SOCIAL.

Many handsome prizes have been donated for the eucharis to be given under the auspices of the Clift-Crescent Club, at the Belmont Club house, 1573 Story avenue, on the evening of Thursday, February 26. The eucharis is to be given for a worthy and charitable cause. All of the people in Crescent Hill and Clifton are interested in the event and promise to make it a success. They invite their friends from all over the city to come and be entertained on that occasion.

AWAY FOR RELIEF.

The Rev. Father Patrick Griffin, formerly assistant priest at Holy Trinity church, New Albany, but now assigned to other duties in Indiana, will leave for Denver next month with a view to re-enter his health. He recently submitted to an operation at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth's Hospital in this city, and was discharged as convalescent this week. He spent several hours in New Albany Wednesday chatting with old parishioners. His speedy restoration to good health is the prayer of all his friends.

RESPECT FOR EMPLOYEE.

Timothy Whelan, seventy years old, died at his home in Canuteon, Ind., last Sunday, and on Tuesday the Indian Cotton Mills, where he had been employed for fifty years, closed down and the officers and employees attended the funeral services at St. Michael's church. Mr. Whelan was a native of Ireland, but spent the greater part of his life in Canuteon. He was well read and an excellent conversationalist. His wife died a week previous, and the shock caused his hasty demise.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

An illustrated lecture, under the auspices of the Knights of St. Michael's Commandery, will be given in their hall, Seventeenth and Southgate streets, at 8 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, February 20. "Wheat and Flour" is to be the subject, and it will be ably handled. In these days, when the whole world is clamoring for pure food, it is the duty of everyone to know how the "staff of life" is prepared.

ENTER RELIGIOUS LIFE.

Two young men will receive the habit of the Passionists at Sacred Heart Retreat, on the Newberg road, at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The young men who were chosen to enter upon a religious life are Fred Riss, of Covington, Ky., and George Seisserman, of Philadelphia. Rev. Father Wilfred Avery, C. P., will officiate at the ceremonies and will preach an appropriate sermon.

AWARDED BIG CONTRACT.

Major Gen. Michael Reichert, Uniform Rank, Catholic Knights of America, has called both local communities of the order to meet at St. Martin's school hall, Shelby and Gray streets, at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. All the members will report in full uniform and proceed to assist at the dedication of the new Holy Trinity church, Kentucky and Dupuy streets, at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Father P. J. Berresheim, pastor of Holy Trinity, is a devoted friend of the military branch of the Catholic Knights and the members want to show their respect and appreciation.

SCHLEMMER &amp; BOOSE, the well known Louisville bakers, have been awarded the contract for equipping the police department with helmets and hats for the spring and summer season. The contract is a handsome one, but Schlemmer &amp; Boose can deliver the goods just as they can make the best prices. The helmets and caps are to be delivered May 1.

KEEPS STOVE CLEAN.

Take an old soft cloth, dampened with gasoline, and rub over stove after cooking. It will remove every particle of grease and you will be able to keep your stove in fine shape.

MEETING OF IMPORTANCE.

The Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America will meet in regular session at St. Mary's Hall, Eighth street, near Grayson, next Friday night. Matters of importance are to be discussed and a full attendance of delegates is desired. Several leading members of the order are expected to announced for increasing interest in the order during the forthcoming summer, as well as for a series of entertainments.

PREPARES FOR MARTYRDOM.

There recently arrived in this country from Antwerp, Vincent Masini, a graduate of the University of Louvain, who is soon to be ordained priest, and will then go to Molokai to devote his life to the Leperas, as did Father Damien. He belongs to the Order of the Sacred Heart, and is only twenty-one years old. His father and mother had him good bye at Antwerp and gave him their blessing.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Tricorne hats are coming in again. Nuttier blue is becoming one of the favorite hues.

For evening wear many little touches are made entirely of gold or silver lace.

Many pretty tailored gowns are made of the soft cotton velvet that is called "frantel."

A pretty stripe is in light blue, Nile green and pearl, the latter stripe being the widest.

Springlike "silks" shimmer already in the shop windows, and cheeks and stripes are both prominent.

Handsome crepe veils with border edges of beautiful hand embroidery now belong in mourning millinery.

Petticoats no longer "stand out;" under the new French gowns they must drop as limply around the feet as they will.

The check is larger than the plaid checks of other years, on the new silks, and mostly it is in two tones of the same color.

The full hat crown has not gone out, and in net or tulie with a wide velvet brim and immense velvet roses for trimming it is quaint.

One of the fashion straws which show which way the wind will blow next summer is a fascinating little cretonne jacket, fastened on the breast with one large button, and from that opening to show a white muslin blouse.

The entwain coat is the garment having the greatest popularity for walking and afternoon suits at this hour. In tailor made that are being given to drift into the stores under the title of "advance spring" models these are in the first flavor.

KEEP STOVE CLEAN.

Take an old soft cloth, dampened with gasoline, and rub over stove after cooking. It will remove every particle of grease and you will be able to keep your stove in fine shape.

TRINITY'S NEXT DANCE.

Trinity Connel, Y. M. I., will give his next dance Wednesday evening, February 12. The present series of dances have proven to be the most popular in Trinity's history. The

MAN AND PRESS.

Corrupt Men and Bought
Newspapers Get Theirs.

No words were mince by Theodore Roosevelt in denouncing methods of corruption by rich men and subsidized newspapers. Read what he says:

Under no circumstances would we countenance attacks upon law-abiding property, or do ought but condemn those who hold up rich men as living evil men because of their riches. On the contrary, our whole effort is to insist upon conduct, and not wealth, as being proper, and upon property, as being the proper standards by which to judge the actions of men. For the honest man of wealth we have a hearty regard, just as we have a hearty regard for the honest politician and honest newspaper. But part of the movement to uphold honesty must be a movement to frown on dishonesty. We attack only the corrupt men of wealth who find in the purchased politician the most efficient instrument of corruption and in the purchased newspaper the most efficient defender of corruption. Our main quarrel is not with these agents and representatives of the interests. They derive their chief power from the great offenders who stand behind them. They are but puppets who move us the strings are pulled. It is not the puppets, but the strong cunning men behind and through the puppets, with whom we have to deal. We seek to control law-defying wealth in the first place to prevent its doing dire evil to the republic, and in the next place to avoid the vileness and dreadfulness of which it left uncontrollable.

It is certain in all probability, upon all men of means, without regard to whether they do well or ill, would sound the death-knell of the republic; and such attacks become inevitable if decent citizens permit those rich men whose lives are corrupt and evil to dominate in swollen pride, unchecked and unhindered, over the destinies of this country. We act in no vindictive spirit, and we are no respecters of persons. If a labor union does wrong, we oppose it firmly as we oppose a corporation which does wrong; and we stand equally stony for the rights of the man of wealth and for the rights of the wage-worker. We seek to protect the property of every man who acts honestly, of every corporation that represents wealth honestly accumulated and honestly used. We seek to stop wrongdoing, and we do so far as is necessary to achieve this end.

BLESSED LIFE CLOSED.

Full of years and blessed by the knowledge that five of his nine living children had entered upon a religious life, Mrs. Isabella Spalding, seventy years old, died in her home in Bardstown last Monday morning. She was a native of Kentucky and was related by marriage to the Right Rev. John Lancaster Spalding, Bishop of Peoria, Ill. The deceased was the wife of W. G. Spalding, a wealthy merchant of Bardstown. The children that survive her are Rev. Father Harry Spalding, Vice President of Marquette College, Milwaukee; Sisters Dolores and Josephine, of Holy Rosary Academy, Louisville; Sister Mary Bernard and Rose of Spalding, N. J.; T. A. Spalding, Mesdames G. M. Talbot, W. M. Smith and Ed Smith, all of Bardstown. The funeral services were held at St. Joseph's church at Bardstown on Wednesday.

NEW CATHOLIC ENTERPRISE.

Daughters of the Faith, a philanthropic organization of Catholic women, has leased a four-story building in Seventy-eighth and Madison avenue, New York City, and expects to establish a home for Catholic girls in the near future. It will be similar to the Catholic Woman's Club of Louisville, but on a more elaborate scale. The Rev. William O'Brien Pardow, pastor of the Church of the Gesu in New York, supervised the meetings of New York women, at which the conference were held that led to the establishment of the new home. The idea is to bring all Christian women into closer touch with Catholic social ideals.

HE CAN COME.

The New York World says: "Viscount Poweswick, who has just resigned his position as Comptroller of the Lord Lieutenant's Household and is going to America, is a splendid, soldierly-looking man, who stands six feet four. He will be twenty-eight next July. On his succession to the title three years ago he retired from the Irish Guards, much to the regret of that gallant corps. Let him come. He will be treated graciously as long as he behaves himself." A few Americans who love a Lord as dearly as the English ever did may worship him, but he is not likely to sweep the country over on account of his physique.

APPRECIATE CHEAP RATE.

Besides the members of the Louisville bowling teams who will go to Cincinnati next week to attend the American Bowling Congress, many Louisville people not interested in the game will take advantage of the cheap rate offered by the Baltimore &amp; Ohio Southwest railroad. Of course the Cincinnati people will readily entertain their guests. Many Louisville ladies are interested in the tournament, for the reason that more handsome prizes are offered this year than ever before.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION.

The Catholic Federation will hold its regularly monthly meeting at the Catholic Woman's Club, Walnut street, between Third and Fourth, Thursday night. Plans for the new year are to be discussed and a full attendance is desired. One of Louisville's well known orators will deliver an address on a Catholic topic.

PRIEST MADE MAJOR.

Rev. Edward H. Fitzgerald, Chaplain of the Twenty-second Infantry, U. S. A., has been promoted from the grade of Captain to that of Major. A Chaplain, whose service is unusual, is entitled under the law to such a promotion. His officers are more popular with the soldier boys than Major Fitzgerald.
